THE THEATRE SCHOOL @ NORTH COAST REP
Classes & Camps 2019–2020
Playful Ensemble Performance
Classes for Ages 4-8:

Students learn and play theatrical games and develop basic theatre skills while exploring the process of putting on a performance. These “Broadway Babies” classes are our introduction into the world of theatre. Each class runs as a mini-rehearsal as students and teacher create the material for performance. Emphasis is on building an ensemble based showcase performance to be presented for friends and family on the final day of class.

Saturdays, 9:00–10:00am  |  Tuition: $249

Teen Dramatic Readers Studio
Performance Classes for Ages 12-19:

More focused performance training for teen actors who want something extra. Teens work on putting together a dramatic reading of a show! Class is student led, with instructor supervision. A performance on the final class period in our studio/classroom space will be presented for friends and family. Focus is on actors using their voices and having fun taking on characters they might not traditionally be cast in. All students are guaranteed a role, but space is limited. There may also be possibilities for learning basic Technical Theatre skills!
